To Whom it May Concern:

We are grateful for the support that the Tulalip Cares Fund provided for City Fruit's 2018 Harvest Clubs & Harvest Crews. With your generosity, we were able to grow the programs and develop new partnerships that will enable us to further increase our reach in 2019.

Our 2018 City Fruit youth programs offered a transformative experience for underserved youth in Seattle, by offering experiential learning on orchards and fruit trees to more strongly connect them to their community's land, food, people, and place. In 2018, we also went deeper into these connections through our Harvest Crew, which integrated professional and leadership development in order to more strongly connect underserved youth and youth of color to environmental resources and opportunities.

- 168 students participated in Harvest Clubs: hands-on learning on Seattle's fruit and orchards
- 28 students trained & certified as Master Fruit Tree Stewards, through 3 Harvest Crew programs
- 1 youth harvester hired through the City of Seattle's SYEP program
- 60 trees at 6 public orchards received direct stewardship from Harvest Crew students: Piper's Orchard, Rainier Beach Urban Farm, Marra Farms, Maple Playfield, Meadowbrook Orchard, Miller Community Center

On the following page, please find some photos from our 2018 Harvest Clubs & Harvest Crews. Thank you again for your generous support – we appreciated both your financial support and also the incredible moral support of your annual event. Please let me know if I can provide any additional information.

Sincerely,
