2020 Report to Tulalip Tribes Charitable Contributions from Evergreen Arboretum and Gardens

Code: Q4 2019 14.2

URL: www.evergreenarboretum.com

Number impacted: 10,000

The Board of Directors of Evergreen Arboretum and Gardens thanks Tulalip Tribes Charitable Contributions for supporting our mission and helping us produce a Sculpture Collection brochure. The brochure sheds light on the art and artists who contribute beauty and wonder to the Arboretum, encouraging tourism, allowing contemplation in these turbulent times and echoing the natural world. 10,000 brochures have been printed for mailing and docent tours. We also produced a bio sheet to give the public information on the artists and aid docent tour guide education.

Although the pandemic altered our timeline, we included the brochure and bios in docent packets for training. The public event we planned to offer will be moved to 2021 when it is safe to gather. We hope you will attend when that occurs.

For over 55 years the Evergreen Arboretum has grown next to the Tulalip Tribes on the Salish Sea. We thank you for your continued support and thoughtful consideration.
