The Tulalip Tribes Charitable Fund makes a difference in the lives of thousands of children.

Free Access Night is an important evening for many of our community's families, who often wait in lines that wrap around the block to enter the Museum on these special nights!

Thanks in part to funding from The Tulalip Tribes Charitable Fund, 8,006 visitors have enjoyed the benefits of Free Access Night so far this year. Countless activities have given children and families the advantage of playing and learning together in a safe, welcoming place.

In September, Imagine unveiled the renovated Imagine-Air exhibit and a brand new exhibit, On Par Mini Golf. Visitors to Free Access Night will enjoy these exhibits and others, including the outdoor Rooftop Adventure and the Art Studio.

Thank you for giving the gift of time for families to enjoy Free Access Night at Imagine Children's Museum. Tulalip Tribes Charitable Fund is a champion for families and community.

About Imagine Children's Museum

The mission of Imagine Children's Museum is to utilize playful learning to enrich children's lives.

Located in Everett, Washington, Imagine Children's Museum is filled with three stories of immersive exhibit areas where children ages 1-12 and their families and caregivers can play together in a safe, fun, enriching learning environment. Yet, Imagine is more than a place. It is 'on the move,' offering programs, classes and outreach services that deliver purposeful play to children, schools and families in Snohomish County.

Each year Imagine serves more than 233,000 children and families from throughout the state and the nation, and the Museum is recognized as one of the top tourist destinations in Snohomish County. Nearly 30,000 people visit the Museum for free, or through reduced admission, reflecting a commitment to ensuring that services are accessible to everyone regardless of family structure, ethnicity, gender, education or socioeconomic status.
