

TulalipCares.org

Tulalip Charitable Contributions Funds Distribution Report

NAME OF AGENCY: Mount Baker Theatre

ADDRESS: 104 North Commercial Street, Bellingham, WA 98225

CONTACT: (360) 733-5793; <http://www.mountbakertheatre.org>

GENERAL GOALS: Mount Baker Theatre's mission as a nonprofit is to provide arts, entertainment, and social interaction through a wide variety of programs for diverse audiences in the region, and to preserve the historic Theatre as a home for local performing arts organizations and a venue for touring performers and community events.

SPECIFIC USE FOR THIS AWARD:

This funding helped us fulfill our mission by bringing a very diverse audience to see The BFG—diverse ethnically, racially, by socioeconomic level, and by geography. In addition to the 2,279 children and their teachers who attended the performances directly supported by the grant from Tulalip Tribes Charitable Fund, this support impacts all of Mount Baker Theatre's programming.

For more information, please see the attached report from Mount Baker Theatre.

March 17, 2016

Marilyn Sheldon, Director
Tulalip Tribes Charitable Fund
8802 27th Avenue NE
Tulalip, WA 98271-9694

FINAL REPORT – Q4 2015 14.2

Dear Ms. Sheldon,

Thank you for the generous contribution of a [REDACTED] grant award to support two educational performances and a workshop of The BFG at the Mount Baker Theatre. With your support, on March 4, 2016, we were able to bring a total of 2,279 children and their teachers to attend one of two performances of the beloved children's story The BFG.

Mount Baker Theatre's mission as a nonprofit is to provide arts, entertainment, and social interaction through a wide variety of programs for diverse audiences in the region, and to preserve the historic Theatre as a home for local performing arts organizations and a venue for touring performers and community events.

This funding helped us fulfill our mission by bringing a very diverse audience to see The BFG—diverse ethnically, racially, by socioeconomic level, and by geography. In addition to the 2,279 children and their teachers who attended the performances directly supported by the grant from Tulalip Tribes Charitable Fund, this support impacts all of Mount Baker Theatre's programming. In the last fiscal year, attendance at events at Mount Baker Theatre was a record-breaking 110,000, and we currently have about 250 active volunteers. More information about Mount Baker Theatre is at www.mountbakertheatre.com including details about past and upcoming performances.

Thank you for supporting the future of the Theatre!

Sincerely,

Kristin Costanza
Associate Director of Development

104 North Commercial Street
Bellingham, WA 98225

Phone: 360.733.5793
Tickets: 360.734.6080
Fax: 360.671.0114

www.mountbakertheatre.com