Dear Marilyn and our friends at Tulalip Tribes,

Thank you for your support of Ballard Food Bank's programs bringing food and hope to our neighbors over this past year. Your grant of [REDACTED] helped us ensure we could continue to be a meaningful contributor to the health and safety of our neighbors this year. Due to the support we received from funders like you in the 2017 program year, we were able to help 3,650 individuals build stability through access to healthy food and critical resources. We were able to serve those neighbors in a variety of ways, including:

- Supporting 38,489 household grocery visits (duplicated) to our food bank, providing a total of 1.46 million pounds of food to the community we serve. Clients took home an average of 35lbs of groceries each week;
- Providing 4,992 bags of groceries to our 100 Home Delivery clients, making sure our homebound neighbors still get the fresh, healthy food they need;
- Packaging and delivering 11,675 bags of weekend food and snacks to support over 340 kids across 17 Seattle Public Schools with healthy, kid friendly meals for the weekend through our Weekend Food For Kids program;
- Facilitating 1,148 points of service (duplicated) through our Community Resource Hub, including emergency financial assistance and connections to partner providers that met with our clients on-site.

Please see the attached pictures and video for a glimpse at this work in action. Thank you for your continued support of the Ballard Food Bank's work to bring food and hope to our neighbors.

Sincerely,

Jen Muzia
