Honoring Children, Supporting Families, and Building Community

Raise for Rowyn is deeply grateful to the Tulalip Tribes for their generous grant support. This funding allowed us to provide meaningful remembrance items to families who have experienced the loss of a child and to create a community - centered Walk to Remember where families could honor their children surrounded by love and support.

Because of the Tulalip Tribes' support, we were able to make a direct and meaningful impact through two primary programs: Angel Ornaments and our Walk to Remember.

These photos show just a glimpse of the beautiful tradition our angel families have created over the years. Each year, Raise for Rowyn lovingly provides an angel ornament to families, giving them a tangible keepsake to honor and remember their child during the holiday season.

2026 Angel Ornaments Design

Thanks to your generosity, the Tulalip Tribes, our 780+ angel families will have a new ornament to hang this year - another cherished keepsake to add to their trees and another reminder that their children are never forgotten.

The Story Continued Beyond the Walk

The impact of the Walk to Remember extended beyond the families and community members who joined us in person. Our Instagram post sharing the Walk reached more than 10,000 views, helping spread awareness of child loss, remembrance, and the importance of surrounding angel families with compassion and community.
