As a follow-up to Tulalip Charitable Contributions to our non-profit, I would like to report the following use of the donation of [REDACTED].

We were able to take on a new client because of your generous support for our children. She is a young BIPOC lady (12 years of age) who has spent some time in Children's Hospital for suicide attempts. She is adopted and lives with her single Mom and an adopted sister. The mom does not feel it is wise for her to get a job, as she is concerned about her daughters. Therefore, they make do on very little income.

"Ivy" (not her real name) came to us in late March very timid, with so many fears. She had been to counselors, but would not talk, so they referred her to Raven Rock Ranch. She instantly fell in love with her horse and while she was not able to speak with her facilitator, she was able to "speak with" her horse, who loved her and was always willing to patiently listen. Her mother reported that only after 8 weeks, she began to turn around-her behavior at home, engagement at school and her relationships with her mother and sister all greatly improved. She has not mentioned suicide or acted in a way that seemed dangerous since she started at the ranch.

We all hope that Ivy has truly changed and is on the road to recovery. We are pursuing further treatment with Ivy so that we are certain she is ready to move on in her life. She is on a good path to that. Every one of our kids is sponsored by kind and generous people like Tulalip Charitable Contributions. We are so grateful to you and the wonderful people in your organization. It makes a BIG difference in lives.

Blessings,
Sandy Matts, MA, CL
