GENERAL GOALS: Since our formation 22 years ago, Red Eagle Soaring has mentored hundreds of Native youth, staged 165 productions, and supported youth access to the healing power of Native cultural traditions which promote social, physical, and intellectual engagement. In bringing together Native youth to learn not just about the technical aspects and process of theatre, but also to build a community of people interested in learning about,

SPECIFIC USE FOR THIS AWARD:

The Tulalip Tribes Charitable Contributions Grant was utilized towards our Summer programming, specifically the 19th Annual SIYAP (Seattle Indian Youth Arts & Performance) at Daybreak Star Indian Cultural Center August 2017. Additional funding was received from the Quinault Indian Nation ($5,000) & ArtsFund ($5,000), totaling $20,000 to supplement our monetary support for SIYAP 2017, a performance based on a cautionary tale and traditional Tlingit story 'The Woman Who Married a Bear'.
