Hi Marilyn-

I apologize for the delay on this, but below is a quick wrap up of SIFF 2018. I also sent you a wrap up package in the mail shortly after the festival ended in June, please let me know if you received it!

138,000 people attended SIFF this year, and below is the breakdown of how many people attended films sponsored by Tulalip Tribes:

BEE NATION: 296

LUK'LUK'I: 160

SULEIMAN MOUNTAIN: 217

WARRIOR WOMEN: 361

DAWNLAND (free public screening at Seattle Central Library): 250

Total Attendance for Tulalip Tribes sponsored screenings: 1,284

We also had 80 people from the Indigenous film & media industry come through for our 4th World Indigenous Media Lab, organized by Longhouse Media.

I've also attached some photos from the screenings of this year's Indigenous films; the screenings in which the filmmakers & film subjects were able to attend.

Thank you so much for all you do, and I look forward to the continued conversation!
Kelly
