

Tulalip Charitable Contributions Funds Distribution Report

NAME OF AGENCY: St. Martin's University

ADDRESS: 5300 Pacific Ave SE, Lacey, Washington 98503-7500

CONTACT: (800) 220-7722; www.stmartin.org

GENERAL GOALS: To provide educational opportunities for students through financial support and/or scholarships.

SPECIFIC USE THIS AWARD:

The Tulalip Tribes recently awarded a grant that will provide scholarships to four students from Snohomish County who demonstrate financial need, to make it possible for them to attend college. The awardees will be able to use their scholarship at Saint Martin's Lacey campus or at one of the University's extension campuses, including the University Center of North Puget Sound at Everett Community College.

The Tulalip Tribes strive to work together with the community to give benefits back to others to help build a stronger neighborhood. According to Tulalip, "It is traditional to 'raise our hands' to applaud and give thanks to those who have given to us." We 'raise our hands' to numerous organizations in our region that contributes to our communities.
