Tulalip Tribes Charitable Contributions Fund –Final Report (Code: Q2 2024 14.2)

Prepared by Fred Poyner IV, grant writer, Sauk-Suiattle Indian Tribe (October 3, 2025)

Summary – Sauk-Suiattle Lushootseed Language Program:

For the Q2 2024 award of funding in the amount of [REDACTED] the following were accomplished in 2025:

- Funding through the Tulalip Tribes Charitable Fund was applied to purchase two new laptop computers for use by the Cultural Resources Department staff to support the Sauk-Suiattle lešúutsid language program. The laptops are necessary, given they are portable and can be used to help with the teaching and instruction provided by Mary Porter, who is a certified instructor in lešúutsid and is the Director of Cultural Resources & Tribal Historical Preservation Office for the Sauk-Suiattle Indian Tribe.
- Funding has also been utilized to design and produce “wayfinding” signage using lešúutsid /English characters for placement in four locations on the tribe’s reservation: Administration office; the Green Community Building; Health and Social Services Clinic; and the Early Childhood Daycare Center. Pictures showing these locations are included with this report.
