

Tulalip Charitable Contributions Funds Distribution Report

NAME OF AGENCY: Seattle Art Museum

ADDRESS: 1300 First Avenue, Seattle, WA 98101

CONTACT: (206) 654-3100; <http://www.seattleartmuseum.org>

GENERAL GOALS: Our three distinct locations celebrate the region's position as a crossroads where east meets west, urban meets natural, local meets global. Our collections, installations, special exhibitions, and programs feature art from around the world and build bridges between cultures and centuries.

SPECIFIC USE FOR THIS AWARD:

Thank you for the Tulalip Tribes' recent support of the Community Day presented with the exhibition Indigenous Beauty: Masterworks of American Indian Art from the Diker Collection on February 28, 2015. The day was a fantastic success and we are deeply grateful for your support in helping to make it possible.

Lively with the sights and sounds of art by indigenous artists, Community Day was an opportunity for people across Puget Sound to connect with one another and learn about Native cultures from the region and across the United States.

For more information see the attached pages from Seattle Art Museum.

Marilyn Sheldon
Director
Tulalip Tribes Charitable Contributions
8802 27th Ave NE
Tulalip WA 98271

Dear Ms. Sheldon,

Thank you for the Tulalip Tribes' recent support of the Community Day presented with the exhibition Indigenous Beauty: Masterworks of American Indian Art from the Diker Collection on February 28, 2015. The day was a fantastic success and we are deeply grateful for your support in helping to make it possible.

Lively with the sights and sounds of art by indigenous artists, Community Day was an opportunity for people across Puget Sound to connect with one another and learn about Native cultures from the region and across the United States.

I am pleased to share with you the enclosed sponsor report, which details Community Day's attendance and programming, as well as the associated marketing materials and press. If you have any questions about the exhibition, this report, or how your contribution helped to make this special celebration a success, please feel free to reach me directly at 206.654.3252 or paulat@seattleartmuseum.org.

The generosity of our funders, such as the Tulalip Tribes, ensures SAM can continue to present these types of opportunities for free to anyone who wishes to join, lowering barriers, and encouraging the continued growth of a rich, vibrant community.

Sincerely,

Paula Tharp
Corporate and Foundation Relations Officer

The Indigenous Beauty: Masterworks of American Indian Art from the Diker Collection Community Day was a time for visitors of all ages to enjoy live music, make art, participate in tours, watch performances, and take workshops inspired by the exhibitions. The first 500 attendees of Community Day got in free to the galleries.

Grammy Award winner, acclaimed artist, dancer, and storyteller Ty Defoe from the Oneida and Ojibwe tribes of northern Wisconsin led story time in the galleries and a hoop dance performance and workshop for all ages.

Other activities included:

- Designing a comic with local S'Klallam Tribe artist Jeffrey Veregge who created incredible comic book characters inspired by native symbols and his own tribal ancestry.
- Weaving necklaces using natural materials with artist Melinda West.
- A live performance by Daisy Chain that featured their unique blend of blues, rock, soul, and hip-hop.
- A family-friendly sketching tour of Indigenous Beauty.
- A special performance by the Git Hayetsk Dancers, who's group name means "People of the Copper Shield" in the Sm'algyax language. The dancers are bonded by their common ancestry to the Sm'algyax-speaking language with distinctions in their family ties to the Haida, Tlingit, Haisla, and Musqueam Nations.
