Tulalip Cares Charitable Contributions Report for Rainier Beach Cultural Stage,% Seattle Parks Foundation. Code: Q1 2025 14.2

Website: <https://rbculturalstage.com/>

The Sounds of the Summer Breeze concert series brought the Rainier Beach community together through six themed activations with themes such as: Global Beats Day, Cultural Fusion Day, and Jazz and Soul Afternoon. Each themed event celebrated and engaged the neighborhood's diversity and creative spirit. Featuring 11 artists and 2 paid vendors who provided free food and drinks, the series transformed Be'er Sheva Park into a space of connection, culture, and joy. This culmination of community led efforts brought an audience of over 250 members of the community throughout the summer.

Thanks to funding from organizations like Tulalip, a total of $3,825 was paid to local performers and artists, $475 to food vendors, and $725 was sponsored in booth fees to increase access for small businesses.

The series embodied the mission of the Cultural Stage Collective by making art accessible, uplifting local talent, and fostering a stronger sense of belonging in Rainier Beach. Thank you for this funding!
