A Thank You from our Directors

Thank you for coming to our concert today. Your care and dedication to our students means the world to us. Whether you are a parent, teacher, mentor, family member or friend, we consider you part of the SCYC family. Your generous, ongoing support is what enables us to share the gift of music with so many wonderful young singers.

The music you are about to enjoy has been made possible by our community sponsors, many behind-the-scenes volunteers, and donations from friends and community members just like you. If you would like to donate your time, talents, or resources to help us grow and thrive, or if you know a young person you would like to refer to SCYC, please come talk to us after the concert. We would love to chat with you!

Thank you once again for being a Friend of the Choir and supporter of the arts in our community.
