RE: Final Report to the Tulalip Tribes Charitable Fund -Q2 2017

The WA Family Engagement Trust would like to express our gratitude to the Tulalip Tribes Charitable Fund for your support of our Sept. 23, 2017 Equity and Family Engagement Conference. The conference was held at the Everett Community College Conference Center.

Our annual Equity and Engagement Conference is one of the ways we build the community's capacity to engage and support diverse students and families. This year, 25 school districts from as far as Spokane, Rochester, Valley, Blaine, Pasco and Vancouver, WA and 26 organizations and public institutions were represented at the conference. Nearly 100 parents and children also attended the event along with exhibitors and inspiring speakers like Erin Jones, Dr. Veronica Velez, Representative Lillian Ortiz-Self and Dr. Karen Mapp of Harvard University among others.

This conference showcased the knowledge and experience of our Board members and partners as workshop presenters and the leadership of graduates of the Parent Leadership Training Institute. Everywhere we looked, we saw our own PLTI parents leading, registering participants, supporting, proctoring in classrooms, caring for children, speaking in the panel and fully immersed in learning about Equity and Engagement.

Thank you to our sponsors and partners: The Tulalip Charitable Fund, Everett Community College, Scholastic FACE, Latino Community Fund, Arcora Foundation, Seattle Times Education Lab, La Palmera, School Info App.

This conference filled my heart! Thank you!—A participant

Sincerely yours,
