RE: Final Report to the Tulalip Tribes Charitable Contributions-Q2 2015 14.2

The WA Family Engagement Trust is truly grateful to the Tulalip Tribes Charitable Contributions for supporting our October 10, 2015 United for Student Success Family Engagement Conference. Your support enabled 70 parents to attend the conference.

204 adults and 7 children were in attendance. Nine school districts from the western corridor of Washington State were represented. Parents, teachers, school administrators, early learning and higher education professionals heard from experts in the family engagement, equity and cultural competence fields, led by key note speaker Anne T. Henderson.

"Please keep on providing us with these opportunities for quality personal and professional development. I can't wait to attend the next WA Family Engagement Trust event" said one participant.

The tabulated conference evaluations showed that 99% of participants agreed that the conference topics were relevant to them, 98% will be able to apply what they learned at the conference in their work and life, and 98% will recommend this conference to their peers. In addition, we received a host of recommendations and suggestions for future conferences.

We want to express our deep appreciation to you and the Tulalip Tribes Charitable Contributions for your support and sponsorship of the 2015 United for Student Success Conference. We also thank you for your invitation to the Raising Hands 2015. We have never been treated so generously and respectfully as a grantee.

Sincerely yours,

Cathy Lin Scott
